COURSE MODULES AND SCHEDULE

Course schedule subject to change, depending on delivery mode and term of study. For exact dates, please consult the Course Offering Information in Brightspace.*

WEEK/HOURS	MODULES
400 hours	* The following is just an outline of the possible outcomes covered in the course and an estimate of the time range that would be required for a learner to achieve the outcome. Outcomes are selected at the discretion of the instructor based on learner needs assessments.
0-100 hours	Listening • Complete a task or procedure following multiple-step oral instructions that include simple, compound, and complex sentences. Minimal instructor-directed briefing, repetition, and assistance during task. • Follow instructions and directions for familiar and less common tasks in which sequence is not explicitly stated. Minimal instructor-directed briefing, repetition, and assistance during task. • Respond appropriately to general and less rote, more complex questions in an interview. • Identify main points and some specific details from a group discussion or meeting on familiar or less common topics.
0-100 hours	Speaking • Use effective conversation management strategies with individuals or in a group. Examples: indicate noncomprehension; encourage participation by adding supportive comments; take turns; politely refrain from participating in sensitive topics; interrupt and correct politely. • Give instructions or directions to fellow students or co-workers. • Use appropriate vocabulary and grammar structures to describe or compare people, places, objects, or processes to individuals or small groups. • Make a formal suggestion to individuals or small groups and provide a reason using sufficient vocabulary, mostly correct structures, and varied sentence types. • Use strategies to improve the intelligibility of speech. • Identify areas where personal pronunciation needs improvement.

0-100 hours	Reading • Differentiate between fact and opinion and relevant and irrelevant information in slightly modified or authentic texts of approximately one page in a variety of relevant contexts. • Interpret information in moderately complex signs, notices, or labels in a variety of familiar and less common contexts. • Identify purpose and relevant details in slightly modified or authentic formal and informal messages and letters of about one page on a variety of familiar and less familiar topics. • Follow instructions related to unfamiliar tasks or procedures in familiar contexts. • Draw conclusions based on information in slightly modified or authentic tables, charts and bar and line graphs on familiar and less familiar topics for a variety of purposes. • Use a slightly modified or simple authentic map to find a location or reach a destination. • Compare information and action required on slightly modified or authentic receipts, bills, credit card statements, and invoices. • Summarize important conditions, details, and items in fine print in slightly modified or authentic consumer documents.
0-100 hours	Writing • With assistance, write up to three informal or one formal paragraph(s) that express an opinion on a familiar topic with supported ideas and appropriate transitions. • Select a personally relevant task or topic and write a set of instructions that convey necessary information in a clear format appropriate for intended audience. • Write an email of up to one page that provides or requests information. Include appropriate subject line, salutation, structure, tone, closing, and formatting. • Using a reference for infrequently used personal information, complete one-page slightly modified or authentic forms. Follow writing conventions when filling in required fields and provide clear, accurate information for extended response sections. • Create lists, charts, and tables to present personally relevant and other information. • Determine purpose of short aural/print texts and record key information accurately.

ASSESSMENT

COURSE LEARNING OUTCOME(S)	ASSESSMENT	WEIGHT
1-5	Portfolio-Based Language Assessment (PBLA) is utilized to assess and evaluate students' progress in language and strategy acquisition. PBLA facilitates assessment for learning by documenting students' language learning over time, highlighting strengths and challenges, and providing frequent opportunities for feedback, reflection, self-assessment, and revision. A combination of formative and summative assessment is used to monitor learner progress against course outcomes. Testing occurs throughout the term. Instructor observations, anecdotal notes, marked work, portfolio assessment and summative testing all factor into the CLBs assigned at term end.	P/BD/F

Important: For details on each assignment and exam, please see the Course Offering Information.

PERFORMANCE STANDARDS

A grade of P is required to pass this course. Learners may be required to pass this course in order to progress in the program or to meet specific program completion requirements.

Please consult with the program area or the Bow Valley College website for further details.

REQUIRED LEARNING RESOURCES

All learning materials will be provided by the instructor.

Additional learning resources may be found in the Course Offering Information or in Brightspace.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

Instructors recommend learner transitions within the Practical program. Learners are informed that they are transitioning to the next level at their end of term meetings.

Additional information may be found in the Course Offering Information or in Brightspace.

ACADEMIC ACCOMMODATIONS

Learners with a disability (learning, physical, and/or mental health) may qualify for academic and exam accommodations. For more information, or to apply for accommodations, learners should make an appointment with Accessibility Services in the Learner Success Services (LSS) Department. Accessibility Services can also assist learners who may be struggling with learning but do not have a formal diagnosis. To make an appointment visit LSS on the first floor of the south campus or call 403-410-1440. It is the learner's responsibility to contact Accessibility Services and request academic accommodations. For more information, please visit our website at http://www.bowvalleycollege.ca/accessibility.

INSTITUTIONAL POLICIES

Bow Valley College is committed to the highest standards of academic integrity and honesty. Learners are urged to become familiar with and uphold the following policies: Academic Integrity (500-1-7), Learner Code of Conduct, Procedures and Guidelines (500-1-1), Learner Appeals (500-1-12), Attendance (500-1-10), Grading (500-1-6), Academic Continuance and Graduation (500-1-5), and Electronic Communications (300-2-13). Audio or video recording of lectures, labs, seminars, or any other teaching and learning environment by learners is allowed only with consent of the instructor as part of an approved accommodation plan. Recorded material is to be used solely for personal study and is not being used or distributed without prior written consent from the instructor.

Turnitin:

Students may be required to submit their course work to Turnitin, a third-party service provider engaged by BVC. Turnitin identifies plagiarism by checking databases of electronic books and articles, archived webpages, and previously submitted student papers. Students acknowledge that any course work or essays submitted to Turnitin will be included as source documents in the Turnitin.com reference database, where it will be used solely to detect plagiarism. The terms that apply to a student's use of Turnitin are described on Turnitin.com.

Online Exam Proctoring:

Examinations for this course may require proctoring through an online proctoring service. Online proctoring enables online exam taking within a controlled and monitored environment, thereby enhancing academic integrity. Online proctoring may occur through a variety of methods, including but not limited to:

a. live online proctoring where a remote invigilator authenticates identity and observes completion of an exam using specialized software and recordings;
b. automated proctoring where the exam session is recorded and AI (artificial intelligence) analyzed;
c. browser lockdown that limits access to other applications, websites, copying, printing, screen capture and other functions; or
d. a combination of both live/automated proctoring and browser lockdown.

Course instructors will review recordings, analyses, and data obtained through online proctoring for academic integrity infractions. It is the student's responsibility to meet the technical, software, location, and identity verification requirements necessary to enable online proctoring.

Further details of these policies are available in the Academic Calendar and on the Bow Valley College website, bowvalleycollege.ca.

Learners are encouraged to keep a copy of this course outline for future reference.

Collection of Personal Information:

This course, including your image and voice, may be recorded and made available to you and other students taking the course section. By attending the class(es) online or in person, you consent to the collection of your personal information. If you do not wish to be recorded, please contact your instructor before starting the course/class to discuss alternative arrangements.

You may use the recordings only for educational purposes and you must not copy, share, or use the recordings for any other purpose without the instructor's express permission.

Your personal information is collected in accordance with section 33(c) of the Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Act (Alberta) to deliver academic programming, support learner flexibility, promote universal design for learning principles, and for purposes consistent with the course activities and outcomes. If you have any questions about the collection, disclosure, use, or protection of this information, please contact the College's Access and Privacy Officer at foip@bowvalleycollege.ca.
