ANMO2201 Intermediate Modeling and Look Development: Visual Storytelling Through Detail

COURSE DESCRIPTION

This course emphasizes the creation of detailed, production-ready 3D assets that enhance visual storytelling, incorporating sculpting techniques to add intricate detail and character to designs. Students learn advanced modeling, surfacing, and lighting workflows, including hard surface and organic modeling, while focusing on optimizing assets for industry pipelines. Sculpting methods are explored to create expressive forms and fine details. Procedural shading tools, AI-driven material generation, and real-time lighting workflows are used to streamline asset creation and refine visual quality, enabling students to craft dynamic and engaging scenes ready for professional production.
